HOUSE

If he knows of graft and has kept still, he is as great a rascal as any one," said Castro, who was particularly vehement.
"If there is graft going on in this House that any member knows about and has not told, then I submit that that member has committed a grievous wrong. If such a thing has occurred, which I doubt, that member has placed this whole House in a false position and where we may all suffer a portion of disgrace.

"As chairman of the Public Expenditure Committee, I state that if I knew any member drawing compensation for work under an assumed name, as stated in the allegation, I would have before this denounced that member to the House."

Long Struck With Surprise.

Long said that he was struck with the strangeness of the idea that such charges as appeared in the afternoon paper should be ascribed to him.

"Ever since the word 'graft' was uttered in this House by the Speaker on Saturday the air has been charged with suspicion and talk of graft. I believe that this matter should be investigated, and that if there is graft among the members or paid official of this House it should be exposed.

"It has gone so far, Mr. Speaker, that the chairman of the Committee on Accounts has questioned the legality of paying some of the translation accounts. It has gone farther, there have been charges made of attempted bribery. I favor letting the investigation go further and go into all these questions. I for one desire a thorough investigation."

Like Unconscious.

Like said he had never suspected any such a thing as was charged in the paper.

Rice Exposes the Press.

Rice warned the members from taking the newspaper stories too seriously.
Everybody knew that the papers had to have so many headlines everyday and that they were not always particularly about what was printed.

Sheldon told about the old gag of newspaper abuse helping a man but stated that the story of the translation graft had gone too far, making a direct charge.

No Grafters from Hawaii.

Kawewehi was heartily in favor of the resolution and urged the immediate taking up of the matter in order that the affair could be settled before the session closed. Speaking for the members from Hawaii, he said their hands were clean. He wanted to have the chairman of the Miscellaneous Committee put on the committee.

"This is one of those miscellaneous things that that committee should deal in," he explained, "besides the chairman of that committee knows a lot of miscellaneous things."

Kawewehi offered to go on the committee himself if his chairman didn't care to.

Guilty Ones Not "Honorable."

Castro moved to amend the resolution to strike out of the word "honorable" before the word "members" when reference was made to the ones alleged to be grafting. This carried.

The resolution was finally referred to the Judiciary Committee to be put in proper shape, the various amendments having snarled the matter up.
